About us
- Who we are
- Where we are
- What we do
- How we are run
- How we are doing
- Working with suppliers
- Our plans for the future
- Our strategic goals
- Becoming an NHS foundation trust
  - What is a foundation trust?
  - Why do we want to become a foundation trust?
  - Patient and staff benefits
  - Financial benefits
  - Our public consultation
- How we managed the Games
- Our publications
- Involving our community
- Healthcare Solutions
- Our charity

Becoming an NHS foundation trust

We are currently in the process of becoming an NHS foundation trust as we believe that this will provide real benefits for our patients, our service, our staff and organisations we work with.

- What a foundation trust can offer
- Become a member
- Our public consultation
- Application process

What a foundation trust can offer

To find out more about what becoming a foundation trust can offer for patients and staff, please click on the links below.

- What is a foundation trust?
- Why do we want to become a foundation trust?
- Patients and staff benefits
- Financial benefits

Back to top

Become a member

We want as many people as possible to support us by becoming one of our members and help shape our future plans.

Membership is free, and it is easy to join. As a member you can choose to be involved as little or as much as you like.

Sign up as a member

Back to top

Our public consultation

Our public consultation on our plans to become a foundation trust ran from 9 February to 15 May 2009. We spoke with over 1,800 members of the public during the consultation period, encouraged all of our staff to give us feedback and shared our plans with over 2000 partner organisations.

Find out more about our response to the consultation and main findings of the report.

Back to top

Application process

This tripartite formal agreement confirms the commitments being made by us, NHS London and the Department of Health that will enable us to achieve NHS foundation trust status.

Back to top

Contact Us

If you have any feedback or queries about our foundation trust status, please contact us.

Email us

Community newsletter - latest edition

Our quarterly newspaper provides you with news on what's happening in your ambulance service

Read the latest edition of ambulance news